  1. Comprehensive Safe School Plan (I/D/A)
Mrs. Maxwell shared a draft of the Comprehensive Safe School Plan (CSSP) for the Council's review and approval.
First motion: Nayeli Camacho
Second Motion: Maribel Rodriguez

Mrs. Maxwell gave a report. Some improvements have been made regarding school safety. We continue to struggle with attendance, but it's getting better. School safety is being worked on. Student drop off is still a problem. Maribel suggested Mrs. Maxwell speaks with the cross guard to help with efficiency of crossing students while keeping traffic flowing. Mrs. Maxwell will speak with Doug about possibilities for easing traffic flow. Also, we will continue to work with students on anti-bullying. Mr. Ojeda asked about Covid update. Mrs. Maxwell shared the 2022-2023 Comprehensive School safety Plan. She mentioned our fire drill. Spoke about what parents find important in regards to school safety. She shared survey results. Nayeli spoke about the incident in which bullets were found on campus. Mrs. Maxwell said there are plans to add lighting to our campus. Mrs. Maxwell spoke about after school activities. Star Nova was mentioned. Parents want to know why Star Nova is not available for all students. It would be great to have a Coding Class and/or other activities. Mr. Ojeda feels parents should meet and discuss suggestions on different kinds of activities we should have for students. Nayeli suggested we have a survey for kids asking about suggestions for after school activities.
